Conquering Life's Mountains Together!

Personal Life Coaching

March 2006

Shalom (Peace)

It's the month of March. At this time of year, spring fever and the late winter "blahs" may begin to set in. Motivation may lag, along with the dreary days. If you've begun the process of making changes in your life, you may notice less enthusiasm for your goals.

Take heart, spring is on its way! Don't let a little side trip take you completely off your path to success. It's not too late to continue on your travels to reach the goals you've set for yourself. Persevere!

In our continuing series on the Fruit of the Spirit, today's topic is Peace. In our busy, chaotic world, peace is often elusive. Noise is everywhere. There are errands to run and work to be done. What does it mean to have peace in our lives?

Barb and Marilyn are excited and busy in the development of new services and our website. Effective with this newsletter, we will be publishing Climbing Life's Mountains Together once a month, instead of bi-monthly. If you'd like to know more, please check out our website today!

The Pursuit of Peace

The knowledge that we are never alone calms the troubled seas of our lives and speaks peace to our souls.

(A.W. Tozer, Knowledge of the Holy, copyright 1964. Christian Publications. Used with permission)

The word peace is found in nearly every book of The Scriptures. The Hebrew word for peace is shalom. The word shalom has many facets to its meaning. Overall, shalom means a sense of harmony and wholeness. Strong's Concordance defines it as the opposite of strife and war. The Greek word eirene is used most often in the gospels and epistles to describe harmonious relationships.

We find in Scripture that God's desire for His people is to live in peace--in our relationship with Him and with one another. Studying Scripture gives us some basic principles to developing peace in our lives:

The sons of Korah write in Psalm 85:10b, Righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Psalm 34:14 says, Depart from evil and do good. Seek peace and pursue it.

A favorite passage of mine for many years has been from Philippians 4:4-7. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice! Let your forbearing (gentle) spirit be known to all men. The Lord is near. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

As you are working on your goals and going about your day, do you have peace? If not, take an honest inventory by asking yourself these questions.

1. Am I walking in integrity and honesty; i.e. above reproach?
2. Do I walk according to God's Word, keeping His commandments?
3. Do I listen for God's direction as I pray?
4. Do I consider the needs of those around me, not just my own self-fulfillment?
5. Do I trust God to lead me in fulfilling my goals?
6. Do I have a thankful heart for what God is accomplishing in My life?

If you answered "no" to any of these questions; if you are not experiencing the peace of God that surpasseth all comprehension, it may be time to re-evaluate your motives and the intentions of your heart. Walking outside of God's will does not bring peace, only trouble and calamity.

I encourage you to take The Scriptures, read verses on peace and righteousness, especially in the Psalms and Proverbs, and listen for the voice of YHWH Elohim (God Almighty).

Those who love Thy law have great peace and nothing causes them to stumble. (Psalm 119:165)

Depression Survey

Do you have questions on depression? Barb is conducting a survey on Christians in Depression. If you would like to take part in this survey, please click here to answer the survey question. An ebook will be written based on this survey and participants will receive a free copy! Thank you for participating!

Keeping Your Joy Full!

Sometimes it seems difficult to concentrate on study as part of our equipping, doesn't it? Yet, we know that one day, people will come pleading with us to teach them about our Almighty God.

So, every time we are able to give a reason for the hope that is in us through our Messiah, perhaps we could say a quick little "thank you" for the Written Word as well as the Living Word that is so much our food and our life that is preparing us even now for the task ahead. I am SO glad for the time I have been given to learn before it becomes too dark!
